

PROJECT START

585,255€ EIT Funding

Four Master programmes defined – June 2020

EIT Label accreditation submitted - July 2020

Industrial Advisory Board setup – July 2020

Cooperation agreement signed by partner universities - December 2020

Students applications opened - December 2020

CHALLENGE

- Design a novel Master of science curriculum model that align High Education programmes with Industrial skills and capability needs, societal challenges and market innovation and competitiveness

SOLUTION

- Innovation & Entrepreneurship topics combined with technical studies
- Learning by doing approach
- Industrial thesis and internships
- International Mobility

BENEFITS

- Companies get engineers with technical and business knowledge
- Students get immerse in a real work ecosystem
- New start-ups and jobs created by the students after their degrees

MAIN PROJECT RESULTS

4 MASTER PROGRAMMES LAUNCHED

EIT Label AWARDED

“The EIT Manufacturing Master School Programmes will educate the next generation of innovators and entrepreneurs”

LUCIA RAMUNDO

Master and PhD Program Manager - EIT

MAIN PRODUCT

Master School Project

AIM: Design and deliver innovative High Education Master Programmes that integrate technology with Innovation and Business studies

EIT Manufacturing .eu

EIT Manufacturing .eu

EIT Manufacturing .eu